INDEX

The names of contributors are printed in SMALL CAPITALS; subjects treated in ordinary type; titles of books reviewed, in italics

Absorption process in English composition, 204
Achievements (Recent) and problems of chemistry, 250
Active members of the National Education Association, 323
Administrative problems of the historic college, 433
American, Dr. Kerschensteiner on schools, 428; Weaknesses in universities, 217
Aphorisms (Some economic), 69
Arts (The practical) in liberal education, 378
Association of American Universities, 101
Attendance officer (The) as an interpreter of social forces, 80
AYDELOTTE, FRANK.—English as training in thought, 354

BARDEEN, C. W.—The monopolizing woman teacher, 17
Bergson (Professor Henri) on the soul, 1
Bibliothek der Amerikanischen Kulturgeschichte, 533
BLISS, HENRY E.—Departmental libraries in universities and colleges, 387
Bliss's (W. F.) History in the elementary schools, 319
Bolton's (Frederick Elmer) Principles of education, 316
Bookman (The) in his relation to the textbook problem, 282
Bureau of Education, The expansion of, 310; Library of, 213

Can such things be? 432
CARPENTER, WILLIAM H.—Bibliothek der Amerikanischen Kulturgeschichte, 533; Sixth annual report of the President and Treasurer of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, 87
Chemistry (Problems of) and recent achievements, 250
Child (The) versus promotion machinery, 336
Children (defective) in Europe, Schools for, 49
China, The Manchu dynasty in, 410
City (New York) School Report for the year 1911, 508
CLANCY, GEORGE CARPENTER.—The absorption process in English composition, 204
Classics, May the modern languages be regarded as a satisfactory substitute for? 449
College course, The efficiency of, 134; Latin in, 236
College Entrance Examination Board, 155
College (historic), Administrative problems of, 433
Colleges, and scholarship, 62; and universities, Departmental libraries in, 387; Moral and religious influence of, 292
Colvin's (Stephen Sheldon) The learning process, 209
Commercial course for high schools, 483
Composition (English), The absorption process in, 204
Conditions at the German universities, 215
Cooper's (Clayton Sedgwick) College men and the Bible, 207
Course (College), Latin in, 236; The efficiency of, 134; (Commercial) for high schools, 483
Criticism (Some current educational) On, 325
Cumont's (Franz) Oriental religions in Roman paganism, 423
Current educational criticism, On, 325
Current educational publications, 74, 199

Dam (The) is out, 274
DAVIDSON, CHARLES.—The education of Charles Darwin, 125
Defective children in Europe, Schools for, 49
Departmental libraries in universities and colleges, 387

JUN 15 1912

114402

Discussions, 77, 201, 310
Doomed pupil, 499
DRAPER, ANDREW S.—Rural supervision in New York, 193; weaknesses in American universities, 217
Dynasty (The Manchu) in China, 410

Economic aphorisms, 69
Education, (liberal) The practical arts in, 378; of Charles Darwin, 125
Educational, On some current criticism, 325; values in mathematical teaching, 267
Efficiency (The) of the college course, 134; (University), 77
England and Wales, The registration of teachers in, 519
English, as training in thought, 354; The absorption process in composition, 204
"Equal pay" and woman, 344
Europe, Schools for defective children in, 49
Expansion of the Bureau of Education, 310

Facts (the)? Where are, 107
Farrington's (Frederick E.) French secondary schools, 92
FIESER, JAMES L.—The attendance officer as an interpreter of social forces, 80
FISCHER, EMIL.—Recent achievements and problems of chemistry, 250
FISKE, THOMAS S.—The College Entrance Examination Board, 155
FITZPATRICK, FRANK A.—The bookman in his relation to the textbook problem, 282
FONTAINE, C.—Walter's (Max) French lessons and German lessons, 418
Forces (social), The attendance officer as an interpreter of, 80
Future (The) of London University, 537

General information, 322
German universities, Conditions at, 215
GREENWOOD, JAMES M.—Bolton's (Frederick Elmer) Principles of education, 316; Farrington's (Frederick E.) French secondary schools, 92; New York City School Report for the year 1911, 508

HAWKES, H. E.—Educational values in mathematical teaching, 267; Undergraduate work in mathematics in colleges of liberal arts and universities; Training of teachers of elementary and secondary mathematics, 417
HAYES, CARLTON H.—Study of history in secondary schools, 95
High school (public), The peculiar obligation of, 461; A commercial course for, 483; Secret societies in, 168
HILL ROSCOE CONKLING.—Secret societies in high schools, 168
Historic college, Administrative problems of, 433

Influence (Religious and moral) of colleges, 292
Information, General, 322
Interpreter (An) The attendance officer as, of social forces, 80

JOHNSON, HENRY.—Bliss's (W. F.) History in the elementary schools, 319

Kahn Foundation, 213
KAYSER, C. F.—May the modern languages be regarded as a satisfactory substitute for the classics? 449
KENNEDY, JOSEPH.—The dam is out! 274; The monopolizing woman teacher, 202
Kerschensteiner (Dr.) on American schools, 428
King's (Harry Edwin) Educational system of China as recently reconstructed, 425
KNOX, RAYMOND C.—Cooper's (Clayton Sedgwick) College men and the Bible, 207
KUO, P. W.—King's (Harry Edwin) Educational system of China as recently reconstructed, 425

Languages (modern) be regarded as a satisfactory substitute for the classics? 449
Latin in the college course, 236
Liberal education, The practical arts in 378
Libraries (Departmental) in universities and colleges, 387
Library of the Bureau of Education, 213
London University, The future of, 537
LORD, HERBERT G.—Saleilles's (Raymond), Individualization of punishment, 421

Machinery (promotion), The child versus, 336
Manchu dynasty (The) in China, 410
MARTIN, GEORGE H.—The peculiar obligation of the public high school, 461
Mathematical teaching, Educational values in, 267
Mathematics (secondary), The real problem in, 472
May the modern languages be regarded as a satisfactory substitute for the classics? 449
MCANDREW, WILLIAM.—The schoolman's Monday morning, 109
MCCREA, NELSON G. — Cumont's (Franz) Oriental religions in Roman paganism, 423
Members (Active) of the National Education Association, 323
MERRIAM, HAROLD G.—Unprofitableness, 313
Modern languages be regarded as a satisfactory substitute for the classics? 449
Monday morning, The schoolman's, 109
Monopolizing woman teacher (The), 17, 201, 202
Montessori's (Maria) The Montessori method of scientific pedagogy as applied to child education in the children's home, 529
Moral and religious influence of colleges, 292
Morning (Monday) , The schoolman's, 109

National Education Association, 105; Active members of, 323
NEWHALL, CHARLES W.—The real problem in secondary mathematics, 472
New York, Rural supervision in, 193; City School Report for the year 1911, 508
NEYSTROM, PAUL H.—A commercial course for high schools, 483
NORSWORTHY, NAOMI. — Colvin's (Stephen Sheldon) The learning process, 209
Notes and news, 101, 213, 322, 428, 537
Notes on new books, 97, 211, 320, 427, 534

Obligation (Peculiar) of the public high school, 461
Officer (The attendance) as an interpreter of social forces, 80
Old-time pedagog, An, 41
On some current educational criticism, 325

PEASE, HARRIET R.—The monopolizing woman teacher, 201
Peculiar obligation of the public high school, 461
Pedagog (An old-time), 41
PERRY, ARTHUR C.—Woman and "equal pay," 344
PHILLIPS, D. E.—The child versus promotion machinery, 336
Practical arts (The) in liberal education, 378
Problem (Real) in secondary mathematics, 472
Problems (Administrative) of the historic college, 433; of chemistry, and recent achievements, 250
Process (The absorption) in English composition, 204
Promotion machinery, The child versus, 336
Public high school, The peculiar obligation of, 461
Pupil, Doomed, 499

Real problem in secondary mathematics, 472
Recent achievements and problems of chemistry, 250
Registration of teachers in England and Wales, 519
Religious and moral influence of colleges, 292
Reviews, 86, 207, 316, 417, 528
Rural supervision in New York, 193

Saleilles's (Raymond) Individualization of punishment, 421
Satisfactory substitute for the classics, May the modern languages be regarded as? 449
Schinz's (Albert) Les Universités des États-Unis d'Amérique, 86
Scholarship and colleges, 62
Schoolman's (The) Monday morning, 109
School (public high) The peculiar obligation of, 461; New York City Report for the year 1911, 508
Schools (American), Dr. Kerschensteiner on, 428; (high), A Commercial course for, 483; secret societies in, 168; for defective children in Europe, 49
Secondary mathematics, The real problem in, 472
Secret societies in high schools, 168
SHERWOOD, ADA SIMPSON.—An old-time pedagog, 41

Sixth annual report of the President and Treasurer of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, 87
SMITH, ANNA TOLMAN.—The expansion of the Bureau of Education, 310
SNEDDEN, DAVID.—The practical arts in liberal education, 378
Social forces, The attendance officer as an interpreter of, 80
Societies (Secret) in high schools, 168
Some economic aphorisms, 69
Soul, Professor Bergson on, 1
STEVENS, ELLEN GALE.—Montessori's (Maria) The Montessori method of scientific pedagogy as applied to child education in the children's home, 529
STUART, DUANE REED.—Latin in the college course, 236
Study of history in secondary schools, 95
Substitute (satisfactory) for the classics, May the modern languages be regarded as? 449
Supervision (Rural) in New York, 193
SUTTON, W. S.—On some current educational criticism, 325

TAYLOR, JAMES P.—The doomed pupil, 499
Teacher (The monopolizing woman), 17, 201, 202
Teachers, Registration of, in England and Wales, 519
Teaching (Mathematical), Educational values in, 267
Textbook problem, The bookman in his relation to, 282
Training in thought, English as, 354
Training of teachers of elementary and secondary mathematics, 417
TUCKER, WILLIAM JEWETT.—Administrative problems of the historic college, 433

Undergraduate work in mathematics in colleges of liberal arts and universities, 417
Universities (American), Weaknesses in, 217; (German) Conditions at, 215; and colleges, Departmental libraries in, 387
University efficiency, 77
Unprofitableness, 313

Values (Educational) in mathematical teaching, 267

Wales, and England, The registration of teachers in, 519
Walter's (Max) French lessons and German lessons, 418
Weaknesses in American universities, 217
WESTGATE, LEWIS G.—The efficiency of the college course, 134
WETTSTEIN, CARL T.—Schools for defective children in Europe, 49
Where are the facts? 107
WILM, EMIL C.—Colleges and scholarship, 62; The moral and religious influence of colleges, 292
Woman and "equal pay," 344; The monopolizing teacher, 17, 201, 202